Policy on Materiality and dealing with Related Party Transactions

[Regulation 23 of SEBI Listing Regulations, 2015 & Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013]

1. TITLE

This policy shall be called 'RPT Policy on materiality and dealing with related party transactions.

2. OBJECTIVE

This policy is formulated in line with the requirement of Regulation 23 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (known as listing regulations) read with Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013. The code of conduct for independent directors as stipulated in Schedule IV of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that it is one of the duties of the Independent Directors to pay sufficient attention and ensure that adequate deliberations are held before approving related party transactions and assure themselves that the same are in the interest of the company. Further, regulation 34(3) of the listing regulations requires disclosure in annual report on materially significant related party transactions that may have potential conflict with the interests of listed entity at large.

In order to prevent abuse in related party transactions, one of the key functions of the Board of directors is to monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest of management, members of the Board of Directors and shareholders, including misuse of corporate assets and abuse in related party transactions¹. Further, according to Section 164(1) (h) of the Companies Act, 2013, a person shall not be eligible for appointment as a director of a company, if he has been convicted of the offence dealing with related party transactions under section 188 at any time during the last preceding five years.
